

The 30 Day Challenge

Did you know that we were created to know God intimately in a healthy relationship with Him in time and for eternity? Do you know that God created you and gave you many gifts? Are you curious about God? You don't have to hide from God, like Adam and Eve did (covering their nakedness with fig leaves). God knows everything about you and welcomes you into His everlasting perfect pleasure. I'm talking about an everlasting life relationship with God not with a religion filled with traditions of men. I'm talking about connecting with the source of life—the person of God Almighty, His Son Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit!

There's just one condition for this 30 day challenge—you must be sincere. The prophet Jeremiah says, "And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. I will be found by you, says the Lord,.." (Jeremiah 29:13-14a - Bible).

If you are a skeptic that's okay. God loves skeptics and knows why you are a skeptic. But just be a sincerely seeking skeptic as you open your spirit, soul, body, and heart to your loving Creator. Yes, God who desires to bless you more than you could ever imagine! Invest time into your relationship with God and see how you will be blessed by Him in every area of your life!

How To Take The 30 Day Challenge?

1. READ from your Bible fifteen minutes daily for thirty consecutive days. I suggest your start in the New Testament book of the Gospel of John or Hebrews. Read at least fifteen minutes a day slowly. On your second day continue where you left off from the first day. Try to read the same fifteen minutes everyday whether in the morning, afternoon or evening. Read in a quiet place away from distractions. Do not feel like you have to rush to complete any portion of material.

2. ENGAGE the material and God as the author. Think about what you are reading without rushing through the content. Learning and education requires your attention and discipline. Allow God to highlight some truth, emotion, or situation to your mind and heart. It may be something that is interesting to you, it may be something that is supernatural, it may be something that is loving, or it may be something that you have never thought about before. You may also put yourself in the story as you read it and ask how you would respond to a question or situation. The more you engage God's Word (Bible) sincerely and curiously, God will grow your knowledge about Him and life.

3. ASK God your questions and expect Him to speak to your heart and mind. God wants to speak to you and answer you. The Bible says ask and receive. We can ask and we can receive from God! Journal your thoughts, questions, insights, and creative ideas that you believe that God has given you.

4. DRAW NEAR to God and God will draw near to you (James 4:7 see also: John 14:26,8:32,10:37, 17:3). God does love you and He waits for you to come to Him. God does bless those who come to Him in faith believing. Everyday grab hold of something of value in order to receive spiritual nutrition for your day from God! Make sure you get something from God! Put something good from God in your memory. Then as you go about your daily activities remind yourself of the truth, love, peace, joy, and guidance that God has spoken to you during your reading. Share your experiences with a mature Bible believing friend and follower of Jesus Christ. Stay open to creative ways in which God speaks to you. Pray that God would reveal His love, truth, power, wisdom and Spirit to you in your life. God will transform all who come sincerely to Him for an everlasting life relationship. Your faith is proved by your action. Start your challenge today! (R.E.A.D)

Tell us about your experiences by contacting us.

The 30 Day Challenge

Did you know that we were created to know God intimately in a healthy relationship with Him in time and for eternity? What about you? Do you have some questions for God? I'm not talking about being deceived and confused by the multitude of false gods in our world. I'm talking about connecting with the source of life—the person of God Almighty, His Son Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit!

There's just one condition for this 30 day challenge—you must be sincere. The prophet Jeremiah says, "And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. I will be found by you, says the Lord,..." (Jeremiah 29:13-14a). If you are a skeptic that's okay. God loves skeptics and knows why you are a skeptic. But just be a sincerely seeking skeptic as you open your spirit, soul, and body to your loving Creator and Giver of all life.

How?

1. READ from your Bible fifteen minutes daily for thirty consecutive days. I suggest your start in the New Testament book of the Gospel of John or Hebrews. Read at least fifteen minutes a day slowly. On your second day continue where you left off from the first day. Try to read the same fifteen minutes everyday whether in the morning, afternoon or evening. Read in a quiet place away from distractions. Do not feel like you have to rush to complete any portion of material.
2. ENGAGE the material and God as the author. Think about what you are reading without rushing through the content. Learning and education requires your attention and discipline. Allow God to highlight some truth, emotion, or situation to your mind and heart. It may be something that is interesting to you, it may be something that is supernatural, it may be something that is loving, or it may be something that you have never thought about before. You may also put yourself in the story as you read it and ask how you would respond to a question or situation. The more you engage God's Word (Bible) sincerely and curiously, God will grow your knowledge about Him and life.
3. ASK God your questions and expect Him to speak to your heart and mind. God wants to speak to you and answer you. The Bible says ask and receive. We can ask and we can receive from God! Journal your thoughts, questions, insights, and creative ideas that you believe that God has given you.
4. DRAW NEAR to God and God will draw near to you (James 4:7 see also: John 14:26,8:32,10:37, 17:3). God does love you and He waits for you to come to Him. God does bless those who come to Him in faith believing. Everyday grab hold of something of value in order to receive spiritual nutrition for your day from God! Make sure you get something from God! Put something good from God in your memory. Then as you go about your daily activities remind yourself of the truth, love, peace, joy, and guidance that God has spoken to you during your reading. Share your experiences with a mature Bible believing friend and follower of Jesus Christ. Stay open to creative ways in which God speaks to you. Pray that God would reveal His love, truth, power, wisdom and Spirit to you in your life. God will transform all who come sincerely to Him for an everlasting life relationship. Your faith is proved by your action. Start your challenge today! (R.E.A.D)